There are many ways that a Direct Primary Care practice can help fill the healthcare void for an employer, whatever their circumstances. From initiating services for the first time, to combining memberships for your employees with a catastrophic insurance plan, at New River Family Wellness, we can partner with you to find a solution that fits your size, budget, and needs. With memberships ranging from $1 to $85 per month for all a member's primary care needs, not only will your employees get incredible healthcare, but you'll get a healthier, more reliable, and productive workforce. Give us a call or visit our website to set up a meeting to discuss your business's healthcare needs and how a partnership with New River Family Wellness can help meet them.
